THE COP AND THE ANTHEM

On his beach in Madison Square Soapy moved uneasily When wild geese honk nigh of nights, and when women without sealskin coats grow kind to their husbands, and when Soapy moves uneasily on his beach in the park. you may know that winter is near

A dead leaf fell in Soapy's lap. That was Jack Frost's card. Jack is kind to the regular denizens of Square, and gives fair warning of his annual cail. At the corners of four streets he hands his pasteboard to the North Wind, footman of the mansion of All Outdoors, se that the inhabitants thereof may make ready.

Soapy's mind became cognizant of the fact that the time had come for him to resolve himself into singular Committee of Ways and Means to provide against the coming rigor. And, therefore, he moved uneasily on his bench.

The hibernatorial ambitions of Soapy were not of the highest. In them there were no considerations of Mediterranean cruises, of soporific Southern skier or drifting in the Vesuvian Bay. Three months on the Island was what his soul craved. Three months of assured board and bed and congenial company, safe from Boreas and bluecoats, seemed to Soapy the essence of things desirable. For years the hospitable Blackwell's had been his winter quarters. Just as his more fortunate fellow New Yorkers had bought their tickets to Palm Beach and the Riviera each winter, so Soupy had made his humble arrangements for his annual hegira to the Island. And now the time come. On the previous night three Sabbath newspapers, distributed beneath his coat, about his ankles and over his lap, had failed to repulse the cold as he slept on his bench near the spurting fountain in the ancient square. So the Island loomed big and timely in Scapy's mind. He scorned the provisions made in the name of charity for the city's dependents. In soapy's opinion the Law was more benign than Philanthropy. There was an endless round of institutions, municipal and eleemosy nary, on which he might set ou and receive ledging and food accordant with the simple life. But to one of Soapy's proud spirit the gifts of charity are encumbered. If not in coin you must pay in humiliation of spirit for every benefit received at the hands of philanrules, does not meddle unduly with a gentleman's private affairs. Soapy, having decided to go to the Island, at once set about accom-plishing his desire. There were many easy ways of doing this. The pleasantest was to dine luxurious ly at some expensive restaurant and then, after declaring insolvency, be handed over quietly and without uprear to a peliceman. An accommodating magistrate would thropy. As Caesar had his Brutus, every bed of charity must have its toll of a bath, every loaf of bread its compensation of a private and personal incuisition. Wherefore it is better to be a guest of the law, which though conducted by Soapy left his bench and strolled out of the square and across the level sea of asphalt, where Broadway and Fifth Avenue flow together. Ut Breadway he turned, and halted at a glittering cafe, where are gathered together nightly the choicest products of the grape, the silkworm and the Soapy had confidence in himself from the lowest buttor of his vest upward. He was shaven, and his coat was decent and his next black, ready-tied four-in-hand had been presented to him by a lady missionary on Thanksgiving Day If he could reach a table in the restaurant unsuspected success would be his. The portion of him that would show above the table would raise ro doubt in the waiter's mind. A roasted mallard duck, thought Soapy, would be about the thing-with a bottle of Chablis, and ther Camembert, demi-tasse and a cigar. One dollar for the cigar would be enough. The total would not be so high as to call forth any supreme mari festation of revenge from the cafe management; and yet the meat would leave him filled and happy for the journey to his winter ref-

But as Soapy set foot inside the restaurant door the head waiter's eye fell upon his frayed trousers and decadent shoes. Strong and ready hands turned him about and conveyed him in silence and haste to the sidewalk and averted the ignoble fate of the menaced mal-

Soapy turned off Broadway. It Foster M. Reeder, member of the eted land was not to be an epicurein one. Some other way of entering 1 mbo must be thought from Washington. Mr. Reeder's es-

At a corner of Sixth Avenue and-a-half miles of waterfront. electric lights and cunningly disdashed it through the glass. Peo- Cutler, Charles J, Waters, Oscar A. ple came running around the corner, a policeman in the lead. Scapy Semmes. stood still, with his hands in his pockets, and smiled at the sight of brass buttors.

"Where's the man that done that?" inquired the officer excited-

"Don't you figure out that I might have had something to do with it?" said Scapy, not without from the club at 7, 8 and 9 o'clock sarcasm, but friendly, as one in the morning and go to West greets good forture. Hatton, on the Wicomico River, The policeman's mind refused to just about two hours' ride, where, accept Soapy even as a clue. Men through the generosity of Foster who smash windows do not re- M. Reeder, his country estate, with main to parley with the law's min- miles of beach front, will be ours ions. They take to their heels, for the day.

Wholesale Selling Price of Beef in Washington

ments sold out for periods shown below, as published in the newspapers, averaged as follows, showing the tendency of the market: Wook RANGE PER CWT. Av. Price

From-To

April 24.... May I..... 19.07 20.19 8..... 19.56 15 19.51 May 22 29. June 19 $20.00 $27.00 $23.94

Swift & Company U. S. A.

The policeman saw a man half way down the block running to catch a car. With drawn club he joined in the pursuit. Soapy, with disgust in his heart, loafed along.

twice unsuccessful. On the opposite side of the street was a restaurent of no great pretentions. It catered to large ap petites, and modest purse. Its crockery and atmosphere were thick; its soup and napery thin. Into this place Soapy took his accusive shoes and telltale trousers without challenge. At a table he sat and consumed beefsteak, flapjacks, doughnuts and pie. And then to the waiter he betrayed the fact that the minutest coin and himself were strangers.

Now, get busy and call a cop, said Soapy. "And don't keep a gentleman waiting." No cop for youse," said the waiter, with a voice like butter cakes and an eye like the cherry in a Manhattan cocktail. "Hey, Neatly upon his left ear on the callous pavement two waiters pitched Soapy. He arose, joint by joint, as a carpenter's rule opens, and beat the dust from his clothes. Arrest seemed but a rosy dream. The island seemed very far away. A policeman who stood before a drug store two doors away laughed and walked down the street.

Five blocks Soapy traveled before his courage permitted him to woo capture again. This time the opportunity presented what he fatuously termed to himself a A young woman of modest and pleasing guise was standing before a show window gazing with sprightly interest a its display of shaving mugs and inkstands, and two yards from the window a large policeman of severe demeanor leaned against a

It was Soapy's design to assume

Birthday Greetings

Representative WILLIAM N. VAILE,

Of Denver, Colo., who has an enviable military as well as political record, is receiving congratulations on his 44th birthday. Mr. Vaile participated in as a lieutenant in the infantry on the Mexican border. He is Vork rite Masonic order, and Mystic Shrine. He is married and has one child. His home is at 2300 Nincteenth street

OUTINGPLANNED

Will Feature Event on

River Estate.

The first annual outing of the Fulton Brylawski is chairman of The committee has issued a snappy poster, setting forth some of the outing of the City Club, positively

"Processions of autos will start

"Lots of fun and then some. Just picture the wonderful time you and a bunch of regular fellows will have fishing, crabbing, swimming.

motor boating, trapshooting, play-ing ball, taking part in athletic events and games, and listening to snappy jazz music.

"Oysters taken fresh from the

the greatest affair of its kind ever

City Club will be held Saturday,

July 17, on the country estate of "Three months on the Island," said the magistrate.

hearts, vows and librettos. Women in furs and men in greatcoats moved gaily in the wintry air. A sudden fear seized Soapy that some dreadful enchantment had rendered him immune to arrest. The thought brought a little of panic upon it, and when he came upon another policeman lounging grandly in front of a transplendent theater he caught at the immediate straw of "disorderly conduct."

On the sidewalk Soapy began to yell drunken gibberish at the top of his harsh voice. He danced, howled, raved and otherwise disturbed the welkin.

The policeman twirled his club, turned his back to Coapy and remarked to a citizen. 'Tis one of them Yale lads celebratin' the goose egg they give to the Hartford College. Nolsy; but no harm. We've instructions to lave them be." Disconsolate, Soapy ceased his unavailing racket. Would never a policeman lay hands on him?

In his fancy the island seemed an unattainable Arcadia. He buttoned his thin coat against the chilling wind. In a cigar store he saw a well-dressed man lighting a cigar at a swinging light. His silk umbrella he had set by the door on entering. Soapy stepped inside, secured the umbrella and sauntered off with it slowly. The man at the cigar light followed has-

"My umbrella," he said, sternly, "Oh, is it?" sneered Soapy, add-ing insult to petit larceny, "Wetl, why don't you call a policeman? I took it. Your umbrella! Why don't you call a cop? There stands one on the corner.

liceman looked at the two cu-

"Of course," said the umbrella how these mistakes occur—I—it man-"that is-well, you know your umbrella I hope you'll excuse me-I picked it up this morning in a restaurant-if you recognize it as yours, why-I hope you'll-" course it's mine," said

Soapy, viciously.

The ex-umbrella man retreated. The policeman hurried to assist a tall blonde in an opera cloak across the street in front of a street car that was approaching two blocks away.
Soapy walked qastward through a street damaged by improvements. He hurled the umbrelia wrathfully into an excavation. He muttered against the men who wear helmets and carry clubs. Because he wanted to fall into their clutches, they seemed to regard him as a king who could do no wrong.

At length Soapy reached one of the avenues to the east where the glitter and turmoil was but faint. He get his face down this toward Madison Square, for the homing instinct survives even when the home is a park bench. Bu on an unusually quiet corner Soapy came to a standstill. Here was an old church, quaint and rambling and gabled. Through one violet-stained window a soft light glowed, where, no doubt, the organist loitered over the keys, making sure his mastery of the coming Sab-bath anthem. For there drifted out to Soapy's ears sweet music that caught and held him transfixed against the convolutions of the fron fence.

The moon was above, lustrous and serene; vehicles and pedestrians were few; sparrows twittered sleepily in the eaves-for a little while the scene might have been a country churchyard. And By O. Henry the anthem that the organist played cemented Soapy to the fence for he had known it well in the days when his life contained such things as mothers and roses and ambitions and friends and immaculate thoughts and collars.

The conjunction of Soapy's refluences about the old church wrought a sudden and wonderful change in his soul. He viewed with swift horror the pit into which he had tumbled, the degraded days, unworthy desires, dead hopes, wrecked faculties and base motives that made up his

And also in a moment his heart responded thrillingly to this novel mood. An instantaneous and strong impulse moved him to bat-tle with his desperate fate. He would pull himself out of the mire; he would make a man of himself again; he would conquer the evil that had taken possession of him. There was time; he was comparatively young yet; he would resurrect his old eager ambitions and pursue them without faltering. Those solemn but sweet organ notes had set up a revolution in him. Tomorrow he would go into the roaring downtown district and find work. A fur importer had once offered him a place as driver. He would find him tomorrow and ask for the position. He would be some-body in the world. He would-Soapy felt a hand laid on his arm. He looked quickly around into the broad face of a police-

"What are you doin' here? asked the officer.

"Nothin'," said Soapy.
"Then come along," said the policeman.

"Three months on the island," said the magistrate in the Police Court the next morning. (Copyright, 1920, by Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.

Little Workers Aiding Belgium

(Special Cable to the Herald.) Bruges, June 23 .- To the work of little girls like Marie Leduc is attributed much of the rapid recovery made by Belgium since the armistice. Marie is a

CHURCHES PLAN 'REGULAR TIME'

Montgomery County Pastors to Hold All-Day Picnic on July 5.

Residents of Montgomery County, Maryland, will hold an "old-time" religious and patriotic rally and ailday picnid on Monday, July 5, at Washington Grove, Md. Posters advertising the day have been put up residence are his aunt and cousins, at all cross roads and towns in the The program, under the auspices Norris. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore N. of the pastors and churches of the wise present at the ceremony and meeting. 11 a. m.: championship gone to New York and are stopping the informal breakfast which fol- baseball game, between Riggs National Bank and Washington Grove. Mr Bartlett and his bride left 2 and 5 p. m.; patriotic ceremonies, night blue tricct ne with a small county to meet the moral, social, hat of navy blue Batavia embroid- educational and religious needs of ered with green and gold on the the county has been unrealized as a whole. Enlightenment on these Members of the bridal party and and similar things which has put us out-of-town guests, a company of to shame and demand action on our eighteen, were entertained at din- part," is the action of the rally, acrer at the Brocke Tea House Tues- cording to a statement issued yes-

Mrs. Blodgett's brother-in-law and GREAT FOR ECZEMA AND OLD SORES

> Guarantee My Ointment, Says Peterson-Every Box of It.

"If you are responsible for the health of your family," says Peterson, of Buffalo, "I want you to get a large 35 cent box of Pet-erson's Ointment today. "Remember, I stand back of every box.

blind, bleeding and itching piles as well as for chaffing, burns, scalds, cuts, bruises and or change, burns, scales, cuts, bruises and sunburn."

"I had 30 running sores on my legs for 11 years, was in three different hospitals. Amputation was advised. Skin grafting was tried. I was cured by using Peterson's Ointment."—Mrs. F. E. Root, 287 Michigan Street, Buffalo, N. Y. Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N.Y. People's Drug Stores and O'Donnell's Drug Stores will small your

Woodward & Tothrop

New York-Washington-Paris

Sale High-Grade Summer . Wash Ties

1/4 and 1/2 Less Regular Prices

A special offering, such as this, coming right at the beginning of the hot weather season, when wash ties are most wanted, should prove exceedingly popular.

best. The colors absolutely fast and will stand any amount of laundering.

splendid color combinations. Men's Store, First Floor,

Sport Shoes Specially Priced at $9.75 the Pair and the sport shoe of the season.

Made of white shoe lace stays; white welt sole and white ivory heel.

This same shoe may be had with Tan Russia calf-

The most popular Sport Shoe of the Women's Shoe Section, Third Floor,

FUNERAL OF STRIKER COLORED BAPTISTS GUARDED BY POLICE

were thrown about the homes of Nineteenth street where the many officials of manufacturing will disband.

cial permit by police.

traffic during the para

Meetings of strikers and picket-ing are forbidden except under spe-tendent of police, for regulation at udestions fee is made and drunk. This Percolator is not only the coffee chef Broils, fries, toasts, stews; will cook an entire meal for two or three persons right at the dining table. Round

Makes delicious crisp, golden-brown waffles right on the table and served piping hot, too, in less than two minutes. No smoke, no $20.00 odor. Prices begin at., Your Inspection Is Cordially river and roasted on the beach and a real old-fashioned shore dinner Prices realized on Swift & Comwill be served. "Tickets are $5 each, and all reservations must be in by July 6. Send your check now. Also any suggestion for adding to the fun. Address the Outing Committee, the

Suitable Gifts Here

FATHER STILL SEEKS Per Cwt. M'QUEARY CHILDREN Information received by Dennis E. McQueary, whose three children - Catherine, Smith and James were taken from their home, 1015 K street northwest, last week, by > mer wife has not taken the young-sters to Somerset, Ky., the home of McQueary now believes that his divorced wife - now Mrs. Eugene Kelley-has possibly gone to Mount Vernon, Ill., where she has other relatives.

their mother, indicates that his for-doomed to liberty. The umbrella owner slowed his At the next corner he shook on steps. Soapy did likewise, with his companion and ran. He halted in the district where by night a presentiment that luck would again run against him. The poare found the lightest streets,

By E. C. DRUM-HUNT.

the role of the despicable and execrated "masher." The refined and elegant appearance of his victim and the contiguity of the conscientious cop. encouraged him to believe that he would soon feel the pleasant official clutch upon his arm that would insure his winter quarters on the right lit-tle, tight little isle.

Soapy straightened the lady missionary's ready-made tie, dragged his shrinking cuffs into the open, set his hat at a killing cant and sidled toward the young woman. He made eyes at her, was taken with sudden coughs and "hems," smiled, smirked and went brazenly through the impudent and contemptible litany of the "masher." With half an eye Soapy saw that the policeman was watching him fixedly. The young woman moved away a few steps, and again bestowed her absorbed attention upon the shaving mugs. Soapy followed, boldly stepping to her side, raised his want to come and play in my

The policeman was still looking. The persecuted young woman had but to becken a finger and Soapy would be practically en ready he imagined he could feel the cozy warmth of the station-him and, stretching out a hand,

"Sure, Mike," she said joyfully,

"if you'll blow me to a pail or

With the young woman playing the clinging ivy to his oak

Soapy walked past the policeman overcome with gloom. He seemed suds. I'd have spoke to you sooner, but the cop was watching."

The young woman faced route for his insular haven.

caught Soapy's coat sleeve.

"Ah there, Bedelia! Don't you hat and said:

The French Ambassador, J. Jusserand, who spent yesterday in New Haven, where he attended the commencement exercises, is expected in Washington at the end of the week. He and Mme. Jusserand will sail for France next month to spend the summer.

The Ambassador of Japan and Mme. Shidahara will go to New York today for a brief stay. The new counselor of the embassy, Mr. Furuye who will come to Washing-ton next week accompanied by Mme. Furuye and their three children, has taken a place in Chevy Chase for the summer.

The Secretary of the Interior. John Barton Payne, was the guest of honor last evening at a dinner dance given by the officials and em-ployes of the department who form the Home Club, in recognition of his interest shown since he was made Secretary of the department.

Saburi, secretary of the Japanese Embassy, and Mme. Saburi will go to Newport, July 1. Mme. Saburi will remain there throughout the summer season while Mr. aburi will divide his ti their summer quarters there and Washington.

The marriage of Miss Eleanora Frances Bliss, daughter of Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, governor of the Soldiers' Home, and Mrs. Bliss, to Augustus Knopf took place at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning in the general's and Mrs. Bliss' quarters at the Soldiers' Home in the presence of the immediate families. Owing to the fact that the wedding date was advanced from the autumn to this time in order that Mr. Knopf might take his bride with FOR CITY CLUB him upon an extended trip which he is to make through the West, everything was marked by simplicity and they were unattended. The Rev. Dr. Robert Talbot, rector of St. Paul's Church, officiated. The bride, who was given in mar-Program of Unique Events riage by her father, wore her travhat trimmed with blue corn flowers. Horace Dodge, made millions building automobiles, filled a whole floor nected with the Geological Survey. of the Dodge "palace" here, and in Washington, occupying an apart-seemed that his route to the cov-club, at West Hatton, on the Wic- Enriquez Concha, of the Chilean father. senate, has come to Washington omico River, about two hours' ride from her home in Santiago, Chile, state contains 800 acres, with four- Willard.

> Gen. Peyton C. March, chief of an inspection tour of the American Thorup, George Plitt and Raphael forces in Germany.

The counselor of the Russian Em- at the Hotel Chatham. bassy, Henri de Bach, will return to features. It follows: the embassy the end of the war (Get this!!! The first annual from a brief stay in New York. the embassy the end of the week

The minister from Paraguay and the White Mountains shortly. given, will take place on Saturday, Mme. Manuel Gondra are receiving July 17, and here's the dope: congratulations on the birth of a son June 22 at the legation.

noon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Sewell is well known here and rer at the Brocke Tea House Tues-Robert H. Wood, of Tulsa, Okia., has many friends who are always day evening by Mr. Gill and Miss terday. who is visiting her for a few weeks. glad to greet her.

Pierson Dirck Keyser, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Keyser, of Philadelphia on Saturday. The ceremony was performed in Rockville, Md., the Rev. J. W. Duffey officiating. A breakfast followed in the home of The young couple left for breakfast followed in the home of after which the bride and bride-groom left for Old Point Comfort.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Griscom Randle. who reside in Edgemoore, Md., will leave here in July to spend a month in the Green Mountains. Clark Raynsford, formerly of day:

is here for several days' stay. Miss Mary Fabrestock, who came to Washington to attend the wedding of Miss Mildred Alice Ralph and Raymond Weisbrod and who has been the guest for several days of Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ralph, has

They leave tomorrow for San Fran- o'clock at the country home of Her- here.

Her Wedding Gifts

The wedding gifts of Mrs. James Miss Mena Gill, cousin of the bride eling suit, a smart two-piece mod- H. R. Cromwell (Miss Delphine Ione who is chatelaine of her father's el of tan wool and a small purple Dodge, of Detroit), whose father, household as he is a widower, and is spending several days at the cisco to attend the Democratic con-

John W. Clifton is spending sevwere in Washington recently have Admiral and Mrs. Herry T. Maye, of Washington, will make a long motor tour from Washington into

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stewart, who

Mrs. Everest George Sewell, Miami, Fla., State regent of Florida. is stopping at the New Willard Mrs. W. W. Howard entertained while in the city attending the naat an informal tea yesterday after-tional board meeting of the D. A. R.

She was assisted by Mrs. A. A.
Steele, Mrs. Richard Hinson, Mrs.
Reginald W. Geare, Mrs. R. A. Dun20th, at noon, at the Church of Our 20th, at noon, at the Church of Our 20 can, Miss Alice Griffith and Miss Father, when Miss Hazel Powers Ruth Hubbell. Mr. and Mrs. William T. Carrigan united in marriage. Dr. Le Grand have announced the marriage of their daughter, Anita Lenore, to ner daughter in New Jersey. Stuart Murray left Washington returned to her home in Philadel- residence in Elkhart, Indiana.

The altar was tastefully decorated with masses of pink roses. The young couple left for a wedthe bride's parents in Somerset, Md. ding trip immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. Lewis wearing a dark blue taffeta gown and tan embroidered hat with jade green brim. They will be at home in Washington after September 1.

E. Mont Reily, of Kansas City. Mo., is in Washington for several her at Capri, and Mrs. Blodgett and her two daughters will join her there later.

Previous to their trip across they will motor to Lake Placid, where Miss Nan Rawlings, accompanied by her mother, left Sunday to visit and her two daughters will join in San Francisco for several months. er there later.
Previous to their trip across they Previous to Lake Placid, where Mrs. Anna Baird is on a visit will motor to Lake Placid, where Mr. and Mrs. Delos Blougett, jr.

Mrs. Joseph W. Folk has joined former Governor Folk at the Will- weddings took place yesterday in a ard, where they have apartments delightful outdoor setting at 12:20 ett. will spend most of the summer his niece, Mrs. Alice Carroll Dawbarn, widow of Waring Lenox Daw-Valued at $500,000 barn, of New York, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunlop Williams, also of New York, became the bride of Robert Dixon Bartlett, of Baltimore. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kemp Bartlett

> Only a small company of relatives and intimate friends were present. The ceremony, which-was performed by Canon J. W. Austin, was solemnized on the broad veranda, tall palms and feathery greens embowering the white satin prie dieu, where the young couple knelt to receive the blessing. The verandas were further decorated with quantities of roses and great bowls of garden The bride, who was given in mar-

and a nephew of Mrs. A. Mitchell

Palmer, wife of the Attorney Gen-

riage by her father, wore an exgeorgette crepe to match, which was embroidered in all over design with flare colored beads. Her picture hat of the lace was trimmed with two beautiful flame colored blossoms and she wore a corsage bouquet of orchids.

Cambridge, Mass., formerly Miss Helen Gill, who attended her as matron of honor, wore a gown of greyish blue georgette which was combined with cream-colored lace and trimmed with clusters of pastel shaded French flowers. Her large black hat of horsehair braid was trimmed with flowers similar to those on her gown and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bride's two small sons, Waring Lennox Dawbarn and Henry Dunlop Dawbarn, aged 6 and were pages. J. Kemp Bartlett, jr acted as best man for his brother The bride's mother wore a gown or torquoise blue chiffon draped over satin to match. Mrs. Bartlett, mother of the bridegroom, wore gown of taupe chiffon beaded in cut-steel, with a small flower hat and a corsage bouquet of orchids is now a member of the faculty of are said to be worth $500,000 or ment in the Westminster, and her Yale University and after spending more. Not the least of the little father and mother joined her there the summer in the West he and his trinkets showered on the bride was a few days ago . Mr. and Mrs. Bartbride will go to New Haven to make a $100,000 pearl necklace, shown lett came from their home in Baltiaround Mrs. Cromwell's neck, and more for the wedding and are stay-Mme. Concha, wife of Senator a furnished mansion in Philadel- ing at the home of the Attorney daughter, Miss Virginia Bartlett. and a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Givney, of New York. Other relatives of the bride groom who came on for the wedding and are staying at the Palmer played wares behind plate-glass the outing committee, and the staff, will sail for home June 28 eral days in New York at the Hotel Mrs. William Norris and the Misses other members are H. Seymour from Bristol, Eng., on the transport Chatham.

Soapy took a cobblestone and Walcott, Foster M. Reeder, H. W. Northern Pacific. He has been on for a honeymeon in Colorado, the 4 p. m. intter wearing a smart suit of mid-upturned brim.

Delos Blodgett, here, left Tuesday for their home in Mobile, Ala. r, and their daughter, Miss Myr. tis Porcher, are still with her. Mrs. Biodgett and ber two daughters, the Misses Helen and Mona Blodgett, and her sister, Mrs. Charles G. Matthews, will sail for England July 17, to remain in Europe for three months, where they will see were associated the two years they lived in Parls and Switzerland. Mrs. Matthews will visit her sister, Mes. Harold Trowder, at her beautiful summer home. Miss Helen Blodgett has just returned from Detroit, where she was the guest of Miss Annette Shelton.

of Grand Rapids, Mich., make their was Harold Hodgkins Dewhirst, 1737 Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Peck, who Park road northwest, who received were visiting Mr. Peck's sister, Mrs. the degree of civil engineer.

TO PARADE TODAY Waterbury, Conn., June 23 .- Po-More than 5,000 members of Col-Waterbury, Conn., June 23.-10-lice and State militia on guard here Schools and Baptist Sunday Schools and Baptist Young People's to prevent further disorder during Union will parade this afternoon at the strike of 15,000 brass workers 5 o'clock from the Peace Monument. lay warned against any attempt. The line of march will be west stage a demonstration in con- from the monument along Pennsyltoday warned against any attempt nection with funeral services of vania avenue to F learnth street; it Liberto Lise, killed in an affray south roadway of Transury Depart with the police. ment: to East Executive avenue to Militia guarded the city hall and other public buildings. Guards also teenth street; turning north co

FOLEY'S Electric Coffee Percolator

A gift appreciated wherever cof-Electric Toasters, $7 to $8.25

Electric Grill

or oblong styles; four different degrees of heat. Prices $11.50

Chafing Dishes, $21.00 up

Electric Waffle Iron

H and

Between 806 12th N.W.

Invited of the MANY HOWARD P

Prices are exceedingly low and the qualities the All-Silk Crepe de Chine Ties, Special, $1.50 Particularly attractive Neckties, all pure silk crepe de chine; white and plain colors, with handsome embroidered figures. Finest Imported Madras Ties, Special, $1.00

White grounds with attractive colored stripes and figures; Black and White

Strictly new and smart cloth with black Russia calfskin wing tip heel and skin wing tip, heel and lace stay.

season, very fine quality, excellently made, and at the lowest price -- $9.75